MISSOURI

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, MO.

Mr. Opal Richardson spent three days here visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Vernon Young has cast his lot with the Elms waiters. We are glad to have him with us as he appears to be budding material for the race. Mr. Emmerson Massey of Kansas City has joined that noble crew. Since last week Mr. Vernon Young's wife has joined him. Mr. Jess Mabson has begun raising high bred chickens. He bought three prize chickens from the poultry show for which he paid $5.00. Misses Hattie Gibson and Lydia Gibson spent a few days visiting relatives and friends in Randolph and Kansas City. The Misses Webb of Kansas City, Mo., were the guests of Mr. McDonald three days of last week. Mr. C. M. Ross one of the members of the old crew of Excelsior waiters has returned from St. Paul. His wife will follow later as she now attends the bedside of her sister in Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Chip Jacobs visited relatives in Liberty Monday. Mrs. Kate Jones of Kansas City is head cook at the Nebraska house. She is stopping at the Cornell flats. Mrs. McKnight of Kansas City and her friends of New York will visit her husband, W. M. McKnight at Excelsior next week. The Elms waiters have begun a series of lectures giving five men a right to talk five minutes each day. It has already proved a success. Mrs. Jim Clark was called to Kansas City on account of the sudden illness of her sister. It is reported fatal illness. The following resolutions were offered to a deceased member: The Golden Gate Court No. 53 offers the following resolution: In the midst of life there is death. Whereas, the great and supreme ruler of the Universe has in his infinite wisdom removed from among us one of our worthy and esteemed sisters, Mrs. Eliza Lewis, and whereas, the long and intimate relation held with her in the faithful discharge of her duties in this Court makes it benefitting that we record our appreciation of her. Therefore, be it resolved that the wisdom and ability which she has exercised in the aid of our Court by service, contributions and counsel, will be held in grateful remembrance. Resolved, that the sudden removal of such a life, from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members of this Court and will prove a serious loss to the community. Resolved, that with deep sympathy for the bereaved relatives and the deceased sister, we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all may be overruled by Him who doeth all things well. Be it resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be placed upon the records of this Court and a copy be printed in the Kansas City Sun and carefully handed to the bereaved family.

Respectfully submitted in F. H. and L.

PLEASANT HILL, MO.

Rev. Reader Rozelle of the A. M. E. Church is confined to his bed this week the victim of a very unusual disease which, we understand is pronounced "widow's rage." Miss Blanche Bryant has lately returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Bradford at Mayfield, Mo. Mrs. S. C. Gibson of the Gibson Floral Co., is spending a few days at home. Memorial services were held Sunday by the "Heroines of Jerico" in honor of the memory of Mrs. Sarah J. Anderson, late Vice Grand Matron. Mrs. Cornelia Brandt lies dangerously ill at her home of appendicitis and is to be operated upon this week. The Rev. Mr. Nelms of Kansas City in a series of Sunday sermons here is demonstrating to the congregation of Second Baptist Church the difference between preaching and pounding a Bible. He is indeed "alluring to brighter worlds" and leading the way. The Primer Class of Douglass School and the "wee Misses" of Pleasant Hill were entertained at a Doll's party last Saturday by Mrs. E. W. Turner. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Owings entertained at a five-course dinner Thursday last. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bryant, Prof. and Mrs. E. W. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bryant, Mr. Lewis Wright, Mr. A. W. Scott. Mrs. Emma Anderson has returned to her home in this city after an extended visit to relatives in Kansas City.

Mr. Henry Green of Mason City, Ia., and Mr. Paul Bealer of Canada, are visiting relatives and friends. Miss Orlena Brown returned from a month's visit with relatives at Atchison, Kansas Sunday night. Mrs. David Roundtree one of our aged and much respected citizens is very ill at her home. Mr. Pleasant Bell, who bore patiently under a prolonged illness succumbed to the common fate of all Monday afternoon. Missionary day was observed at the A. M. E. Church last Sunday. In the afternoon a joint session of the Junior and Senior H. and P. Missionary societies was held and a benefitting program was rendered by several members of the same. Mrs. M. E. Oaks is president of the Senior and Junior and have Mrs. Katie Nance as their leader. A very good Missionary collection was raised. Mr. Jas. Banks the barber, is no respecter of persons. This fact was brought to light several days ago at the Livingstone County poultry show when he gave his poultry raising competitors a clean shave as he received first prize. His fine birds won third prize for three consecutive years. We congratulate our number one poultry raiser. Saturday afternoon the home of Miss Minnie Payne was the scene of pleasure. The young ladies had assembled and whist and music were the features of their meeting. Business was interspersed when they elected Miss Minnie Payne President, Miss Sadie Saunders Vice President, Miss Odessa Hillman Secretary and Miss Lizzie Jones Treasurer. The new society has a membership of twelve young ladies. After the election of officers Miss Payne invited the society into the dining room where a four-course lunch was served. The color scheme was pink and white. The next meeting of this society will be held at the home of Miss Iva Brown, January 24th. Such a society as this is subject to a decrease than an increase of membership. The high sea for which no compass has yet been invented is very inviting to members of the lookout committee, the officers and others of the members as well.

Mr. Editor: Please allow space in your widely read paper for this correction. You published the report of the District Presidents in the Missionary work of the North Missouri Conference and stated that Mrs. B. P. Bates was president of the St. Joseph District. I wish to state that Mrs. Bates is President of the Columbia District and Mrs. Hattie L. Buren of St. Joseph is the President of the St. Joseph District but at the time of the report was made, Mrs. M. E. Oaks was the president of this district. I was first appointed to the office by Mrs. John A. Gregg who was then president of the district and when she became the Conference President I was appointed to succeed her. At the Convention which was held in this city I was elected for the ensuing year. I was elected at the Annual Conference to the office of Conference President and as it was in the power of the President to appoint my successor, I appointed Mrs. Hattie Buren for the St. Joseph District, the appointment was highly endorsed by P. E. Rev. M. S. Bryant. Why I was not given credit for having led this work, I am unable to say but I am not ashamed of the report as the total amount of money raised was $202.60. Anyone doubting this statement may look in the July issue of the Voice of Missions.

Less Muddy Voice.

The madam's voice is creamy and clear. Better focused than most contraltos and eveners. More ringing in climax, less muddy in soft passages. It is as good as any voice can be that springs from fleshy throat, trusts the quivering lung for power, and records itself on the more or less dull, waxy surfaces of miscellaneous ears. It satisfies. It uplifts. It inspires. It completely conveys the message of a pure and confident motherhood, brooding over the whole human race. —St. Paul News.

All He Asked.

Up in Alaska there used to be a district attorney who was long on native oratory, but short on education. Once, while prosecuting a big case, coming to the finish of his argument, he leaned across the rail and made this plea: "All I ask of you, gentlemen of the jury, is that you now retire and mete out justice as also deserves to be met!"

Had to Do It.

"What do you mean by suing me for breach of promise?" he demanded. "I never proposed to you in my life." "Why of course you didn't," she answered, in a conciliatory tone. "And I wouldn't have accepted you if you had. But you know I am going on the stage, and I must have some preparations." —Judge.

Dreadful.

"Mercy, child?" exclaimed Mrs. Harlem. "I never would have believed my little boy could use such language. Been playing with bad children again, haven't you?" "No'm," replied her little boy. "Teddy Bacon and I have been playing with a parrot his uncle sent him from Chicago."

Suffocated by Wine Fumes.

Five were suffocated in a wine vat at Brugier, near Limoges, France, a few days ago. The five were working at a wine press when one of them, a girl named Crozet, who was in the vat, fell and was asphyxiated. Her four companions rushed to her help, but also succumbed to the fumes.
